Grilling Policy

Effective Date: September 1, 2020

The grill policy has been developed in accordance with Village Court Apartments Policies and Procedures. The intent is to minimize and mitigate noise, smells, trash, fire hazard and smoke that would otherwise trespass into buildings and associated individual units.

Please adhere to the following regulations and policies:

ALLOWED

Community charcoal grills have been constructed in several locations at the Village Court Apartments and are considered a privilege and may only be used by Village Court Apartments residents on a first come/first served basis.

Guidelines

The following guidelines are to be used when grilling at Village Court Apartment in designated areas:

1. Residents will operate grills in a manner to not present a fire hazard.
2. Residents are responsible for cleaning the grills after each use.
3. Residents are responsible for cleaning the grill area and disposing of all trash.
4. Residents are responsible for providing their own charcoal.
5. Noise levels at the grill locations must be kept at a level that does not disturb nearby residents.
6. Grills may only be used between the hours of 8 A.M. and 10 P.M.

PROHIBITED

- Wood, lighter fluid or similar alternative fuels are prohibited as grill fuels at the Village Court Apartments.
- Personal grills of any kind may not be stored or used at Village Court Apartments.
- Residents are not allowed to store propane gas cylinders inside buildings, units or under covered parking areas.

Thank you for your consideration in advance.
